9. Input from the Public

Marg Gardiner, JBNA, recounted an experience she had with reporting an incident to Transport Canada. She stated that the response to the incident validated a widely held lack of confidence in the supervision of airport activities in Victoria Harbour.

Concerns were voiced about the lack of information regarding quality of life and health issues around floatplane emissions during Transport Canada's earlier presentation on harbour safety.

Brian Scarfe, JBNA, inquired about the proposed water shuttle from Ogden Point to Fisherman's Wharf and the potential for moving passengers via water instead of buses.

The CEO stated that the water shuttle proposal will be a pilot project, and is being looked at one step at a time. Discussions are being advanced and although premature at this time, are positive.

Kira Starr, University of Victoria student, requested she be able to use director's names and meeting information for a report.
